gret that he is to make his home elsewhere.

DEATH OF J. F. BRANDON.

John F. Brandon was born in Union county January 25th, 1860. When a young man he professed faith in Christ and united with the Grace Street Methodist church of Union.

He was married to Miss Virgie Davis on Union Nov. 1, 1882. To them were born nine children, seven of whom are living, as follows: F.
K., H. S., L. P., J. H. and P. D., Mrs.
A. L. Garner of Monarch, Miss Janie Brandon.

He died Oct. 18th, 1915, aged 55 years, nine months and 23 days. At the time of his death he was a steward in the Sardis Methodist church, where, by his own request, the writer conducted his funeral services in the presence of a large gathering of friends. He was assisted by the pastor, Rev. Lewis.

His mother, Mrs. Sarah E. J. Brandon, and one sister, Mrs. J. W. Crawford, of Union, survive him. Also his widow and seven children, a number of relatives and a host of friends.

He was chief of records of the Red Men, clerk of the W. O. W. and secretary of the I. O. O. F. He was faithful to every trust imposed in him.

In the death of this good man the whole community has received a severe blow for he was a man loved by everybody, both young and old. His life was an example of patience, his death a beautiful triumph and the Christian faith his last messages to his children and friends were grand.

He said just before he died that it was so sweet to die in Jesus. He told the writer that he was going home to a better place.

Yes, we will all miss him. As a father and husband he was kind and thoughtful; as a neighbor ever ready to lend a helping hand to those who needed him.

The family can truly say:

"Thou art gone our precious father;
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart in heaven we'll meet again."
D. W. Garvin.

CHURCH SOCIAL MEETING.

The literary and social meeting of the Grace church missionary society was held at the residence of Mrs. W.
D. Arthur last Monday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. W. T. Beaty, Mrs.
J. D. Arthur and Mrs. W. D. Arthur.
Mrs. W. T. Beaty conducted the meeting.

Several well selected pieces were read by Mrs. T. C. Duncan, Mrs. Landy Hames and Mrs. C. T. Murphy. Music was furnished by Miss Vivian Sarrett and Miss Catherine Layton. The president, Mrs. W. W. Summer then made a most excellent talk which all present enjoyed.

The hostesses then served refreshments, and the meeting adjourned.

These social meetings are very pleasant and well attended.

SHOWER FOR MISS ETTA McDOW.

A beautiful climax to the many compliments which have been showered upon Miss Etta McDow since the announcement of her engagement to Spencer Perrin, was the miscellaneous shower which Mrs. Robert A.
Easterling gave for her Wednesday afternoon at her home on "Douglass Heights."

About thirty-five guests were invited and at five o'clock a negro man-my came in rolling a wheelbarrow, upon which was placed a clothes basket. She put the basket in front of the honoree and said: "I ain't gwine wash for you no mo', you has too much." When the basket was emptied it was found to contain exquisite linen and lace, so dear to the heart of every woman.

The hostess served ices with sweets.

LIFE IS UNCERTAIN

Very often the person appointed Executor dies before the maker of the Will, thereby causing the annoyance of appointing another.

Not infrequently newspapers report the death of an Executor before his work is half completed—leaving the estate in chaotic condition.

This cannot happen with the Corporate Executor.
Its term of life is perpetual. Make the NICHOLSON
